Wellness Talk: Everyone Poops!

Yep, here it is, we are talking about poop. A topic that is widely discussed about amongst parents with babies and small children, and yet is pretty much taboo amongst adults. Aren't you glad this is a one-sided conversation this time?

It's important that we pay attention to our feces as it can reveal more than just what you had for dinner last night. Click here to learn what to look out for.

Prepare for Next Month! Here's your August Wellness Calendar

Every month Dunk & Associate's provides our clients/customers with a monthly wellness calendar. It takes time to build a habit and we want to help you create healthy workplaces and improve your own personal wellness. Don't like the task for the day, just switch it up and make it work for you! So far, our clients are experiencing a lot of success using the monthly calendar. If you like it, be sure to let us know and share your story. Use #dunkwellness2018.

Tech Talk: Self-Driving Vehicles

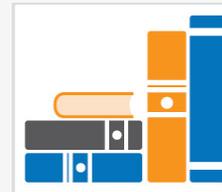

While growing up we saw advance technology in TV and in the movies from hover crafts and hover boards, to self-driving cars, robot butlers and even space ships. With new advancements in automation, we have started to see autonomous cars in development. An Autonomous car can be classified as a driverless, self-driving or a robotic vehicle that has the ability to navigate in its environment without the need for human input.
